

Anderson High School Theater Department presents:

“Night of the Living Dead”

A horror tale of zombies and chaos

(FROM THE GEORGE ROMERO/JOHN RUSSO CLASSIC FILM HORROR BY LORI ALLEN OHM)

Chaos descends upon the world as the brains of the recently deceased become inexplicably reanimated, causing the dead to rise and feed on human flesh. Come experience a young woman’s terror-filled journey to survive in a zombie infested world. Many fun surprises await audience members from the moment they enter the lobby. BEWARE...you never know what might be lurking in the dark!

Enjoy the midnight showings for an extra dose of fright!

(This show is recommended for ages 12 and up)

Show Dates & Times: October 20, 8 PM and Midnight
October 21, 8 PM and Midnight

Location: Anderson High School Performing Arts Center

Tickets: $5 for students and $10 for adults at the door

Tickets sold at lunch Thursday, 10/19 and Friday, 10/20 in the MMS and AHS cafeterias and at the AHS Box Office one hour before showtime.