

Farm Fresh Fridays 2019-20 Elementary Art Contest

October is National Farm to School Month!

To celebrate this, we are encouraging Austin ISD elementary school students to create artwork honoring local farmers and the use of local produce in the school cafeteria.

AISD elementary school students are encouraged to create artwork featuring CARROTS. Local, organic carrots from Johnson's Backyard Garden, a farm in East Austin, will be served in all AISD cafeterias, each week, during the spring menu cycle (Mar. 2-May 28) in celebration of Farm Fresh Fridays!

Artwork Requirements:

- Must include images of carrots.
- Must include the tagline "Farm Fresh Fridays".
- May include images of farms/farmers.
- Artwork must be in color.
- Artwork can be a drawing or other forms of 2-dimensional art.
- Must be a vertical layout, size: 8.5" x 11".
- Contest begins September 30, 2019.
- Artwork must be submitted by Friday, November 8, 2019.
- Artwork can be submitted to: Lindsey Bradley, AISD Nutrition & Food Services, AISD Central Warehouse (3701 Woodbury Dr, Austin, TX 78704)
- Please include students name and grade on the back of the artwork.
- Please include teacher contact information when submitting.
- Artwork will be returned to teachers following judging.

The winning artwork will be used as Farm Fresh Fridays promotional signage and displayed in all cafeterias across the district each time the local carrots are served. The winning student will also receive a prize pack from AISD Nutrition & Food Services.
